

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

December 20, 1922.

Permit No. 1923-50.
Kamishak Canning Company.
Kamishak Bay.

-----

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Kamishak Canning Company, whose home office is at Anchorage, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate its floating plant for the canning of salmon for commercial purposes in Kamishak Bay within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may operate three (3) beach seines and five (5) gill nets from the said floating cannery, but may not fish within the headlands of Chinik Inlet, which is now closed to fishing, and may not use purse seines, which are now prohibited in fishing for salmon within the reservation. Fish may be purchased from any individuals who have obtained permits to fish for salmon.

2. That the pack of all species of salmon shall not exceed five thousand (5,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

HERBERT HOOVER.

Secretary of Commerce.
